

Please leave the Wisconsin "No call policy" alone. For the first time in years I can sit down at the dinner table and not be disturbed by some ahole trying to sell me something. I will seek them out if I want their services.